

Mossimo Supply, Pasadena, California with Schweitzer BIM, 1992

View from lower showroom

View of showroom

Entrance

Detail of column

This project for Mossimo Supply clothes was adapted into an existing historical building located in the prominent outdoor shopping area of the Old Town district of Pasadena. This was our second showroom for Mossimo and I was involved in all phases of design, development, construction and management of both this project and the flagship showroom completed a few months earlier in Costa Mesa's South Coast Plaza.